Musical.

An interesting musical program was given Tuesday night for the benefit of the Protestant union Sunday school at Yslem. Mrs. John L. Reed was in charge of the performance, which was given at the Valley Inn, Ysleta, and which was attended by many El Paso people the rooms of the Inn were attractively decorated with red candles and quantities of poinsetta and carnation blossoms, combined with big bunches of mistletoe. The performance was well attended. The program began with a vocal solo, "For Love's Sweet Sake," by Stutta sung by Mrs. J. D. Duncan, with Miss Estrella Hailey playing the piane accompaniment. Miss Elizabeth Pitman played a number of piano solos through the evening. Her selections were "Minuet a Lantico," by Seebseck! "The Flatterer," by Chaminade: three compositions urranged for the left hand by Spross, including a Scotch song, "MacDow," Griegs "Butterfly," and "To Spring," Beethoven's "Sonate Pathetia," a Polish dance by Schorivenak, and "Love Waltz," by Edouard Schutt. Frank J. Cheek of El Paso, sang several solos, accompanied on the piano by Miss Elizabeth Pitman. Among his selections were "in Victus," by Bruno Hubn, "Rolling Down the Rio," by Edwin German, "To My First Love" and "You'd Better Ask Ms," by Herman Lohr. Mrs. W. B. Lansden sang "Just Because," by Burleigh, with Miss Blanche Gaul playing her accompaniment. W. B. Glardon sang "The Rolling Deen," with Miss Blanche Gaul playing the playing
